Overview

A trip that started in Zambia covered a wide variety of habitats in Namibia and crossed a little into Botswana's Okavango Panhandle, where the water life is incomparable. We had a great time birding with a small group of only six clients. The scenery, roads, food, and everything in between left us with great memories and stories to go with the amazing birding that took place over the next 18 days.

Day 1, 20 November 2017. Birding Livingstone

With our last tour participant arriving later today we managed to do some great morning birding around Livingstone, Zambia, and recorded African Hawk-Eagle, African Openbill, Collared Palm Thrush, Grey-backed Camaroptera, White-fronted Bee-eater, Squacco Heron, African Jacana, Emerald-spotted Wood Dove, Brown-hooded Kingfisher, and Village Weaver. In the afternoon after collecting the last tour participant, we made our way to a good spot to look for Racket-tailed Roller and managed to connect with the bird almost instantaneously. Here we also found Black-backed Puffback, Purple-banded and Amethyst Sunbirds, and Yellow-billed Kite. A quick stop on the side of the road on the way back to our accommodation provided us with Lesser Grey and Red-backed Shrikes, Northern Grey-headed Sparrow, Red-billed Firefinch, Blue Waxbill, Long-billed Crombec, and many more.

Day 2, 21 November 2017. Victoria Falls and Livingstone

We started the day with an early morning walk, during which we recorded Purple Heron, Levillant's and Red-chested Cuckoos, Black Cuckooshrike, Bearded Scrub Robin, Red-winged Starling, Rock Martin, Barn Swallow, Collared Sunbird, Natal Spurfowl, and African Wattled Lapwing. With our main goal being the magnificent Victoria Falls, birds during our sightseeing trip included African Green Pigeon, Emerald-spotted Wood Dove, African Palm and White-rumped Swifts, Striped, Malachite, and Brown-hooded Kingfishers, White-fronted Bee-eater, Trumpeter Hornbill, and Swamp Boubou. A scenic afternoon boat cruise provided us with the likes of Rock Pratincole, Knob-billed Duck, White-faced Whistling Duck, Spur-winged Goose, African Skimmer, African Finfoot, Western Osprey, Red-faced Cisticola, Holub's Golden Weaver, African Pied Wagtail, Glossy Ibis, Striated Heron, Intermediate Egret, African Darter, and more.

Trumpeter Hornbill

Day 3, 22 November 2017. Transfer to Katima Mulilo, Namibia

With mostly a travel day ahead of us we didn't have too much time for birding, but the morning bird walk provided us with Chinspot Batis, Black Cuckooshrike, Black-collared Barbet, Squacco Heron, a calling Striped Kingfisher, Helmeted Guineafowl, Red-faced Cisticola, Tropical Boubou, and more. En route to Katima Mulilo we didn't see much except for Barn Swallow, African Palm Swift, White-rumped Swift, and Black-crowned Tchagra, while a Diederik Cuckoo was calling. The road toward Namibia was in rather a bad state with a lot of potholes littered all over it, but at least the border crossing was quite painless. Soon after we arrived at Caprivi Houseboats, our accommodation for the evening, we went for a walk, during which we had smashing views of White-browed Robin-Chat, Orange-breasted Bushshrike, Magpie Shrike, Lizard Buzzard, White-bellied Sunbird, African Wood Owl, Willow Warbler, Black-winged Stilt, Red-eyed Dove, Schalow's Turaco, and many others.

Day 4, 23 November 2017. Birding Katima Mulilo, Namibia

We started the day with a morning walk, which produced White-bellied Starling, Klaas's Cuckoo, Senegal and White-browed Coucals, Southern Carmine Bee-eater, Black-throated Canary, Pintailed Whydah, Yellow-billed Kite, and Green Wood Hoopoe. After breakfast we continued birding around the lodge and took a short drive to some nearby marshes, which unfortunately were very dry due to the late rains. Nevertheless we still saw White-crested Helmetshrike, Brown-crowned and Black-crowned Tchagras, Schalow's Turaco, Lesser Striped Swallow, White-fronted Bee-eater, a calling Greater Honeyguide, and White-browed Scrub Robin. We also found a small pond with a few fishermen on it, and here recorded Intermediate and Western Cattle Egrets, Giant, Pied, and Malachite Kingfishers, Squacco Heron, African Pygmy Goose, Blacksmith Lapwing, African Jacana, and more. On our way back to the vehicle we found Red-billed Oxpecker, African Wattled Lapwing, Luapula Cisticola, and African Grey Hornbill. A boat cruise in the afternoon produced

White-backed Night Heron, African Pygmy Kingfisher, Water Thick-knee, Rock Pratincole, African Darter, African Skimmer, Hadada Ibis, African Fish Eagle, Blue-cheeked Bee-eater, White-faced Whistling Duck, Common Greenshank, and Kittlitz's Plover among many others.

White-backed Night Heron

Day 5, 24 November 2017. Transfer to the Okavango Panhandle, Botswana

Our morning walk before breakfast produced, among others, Tawny-flanked Prinia, Klaas's Cuckoo, Black Cuckooshrike, White-browed Robin-Chat, Black-collared and Crested Barbets, and Yellow-fronted Tinkerbird. En route to the Okavango we recorded Southern Carmine Bee-eater, Yellow-billed Kite, African Openbill, and Wire-tailed Swallow. After a few hours we managed to reach the collection point for our next lodge in the panhandle, and the enjoyable boat ride to the island on which the lodge was located yielded African Fish Eagle, African Skimmer, Hamerkop, Water Thick-knee, Reed Cormorant, African Darter, and Little Bee-eater. After a late lunch we walked around the garden, and the island very quickly provided us with Pel's Fishing Owl, Hartlaub's Babbler, Woodland Kingfisher, Brown Firefinch, Broad-billed Roller, Retz's Helmetshrike and others before, unfortunately, rain cut our walk short and ended the day.

Day 6, 25 November 2017. Birding the Okavango Panhandle

Waking up to one of the most spectacular dawn choruses on the tour yet, we started off with a morning walk in and around the lodge and enjoyed Mourning Collared Dove, Woodland Kingfisher, Grey Tit-Flycatcher, Dark-capped Bulbul, Broad-billed Roller, Hartlaub's Spurfowl, Cardinal Woodpecker, Grey-backed Camaroptera, Red-billed Oxpecker, and Holub's Golden Weaver. After a great breakfast (as usual) we went on our morning boat cruise on the Okavango River and had great views of Striated Heron, African Fish Eagle, Little Bittern, African Jacana, Long-toed and Blacksmith Lapwings, Goliath Heron, African Pygmy Goose, Chirping Cisticola, and many more. We pulled up onto a sand bank and walked a little in search of Slaty Egret, which showed very well, Wattled Crane, Cape Wagtail, Yellow-billed Oxpecker, African Openbill, Spur-winged Goose, Senegal Coucal, and more, but unfortunately we dipped on Lesser Jacana. The main highlights on our afternoon boat cruise were Grey-headed Kingfisher, Collared Pratincole, Hamerkop, Black-winged Kite, Western Osprey, and brief views of Greater Swamp Warbler.

Day 7, 26 November 2017. Transfer to Popa Falls, Namibia

During a short morning walk and a short boat trip back to our vehicle we saw, among others, Meyer's Parrot as a flyby, Grey Go-away-bird, Yellow-bellied Greenbul, Greater Swamp Warbler, Coppery-tailed Coucal, Giant and Pied Kingfishers, African Fish Eagle, Marabou Stork, and African Hoopoe. After checking into our accommodation and a decent lunch we made our way into the beautiful Mahango Game Reserve, part and showcase of the large Bwabwata National Park, where some of the many birds we enjoyed here were Knob-billed Duck, White-faced Whistling Duck, Egyptian and Spur-winged Geese, Wattled Crane, Great Egret, African Openbill, Meves's and Burchell's Starlings, Crimson-breasted Shrike, Shaft-tailed Whydah, Namaqua Dove, Wahlberg's and Tawny Eagles, Violet-eared and Black-faced Waxbills, and Slaty Egret! Mammals included African Elephant, Greater Kudu, Impala, Red Lechwe, and Hippopotamus.

Day 8, 27 November 2017. Transfer to Roy's Camp

A short walk around the camp this morning produced Orange-breasted Bushshrike, Golden-tailed Woodpecker, White-bellied Sunbird, Little Sparrowhawk, African Wattled Lapwing, African Pied Wagtail, Rock Pratincole, Tawny-flanked Prinia, and Swamp Boubou. We spent a few minutes en route to our next lodge looking for Rufous-bellied Tit, Sharp-tailed Starling, and Souza's Shrike, unfortunately to no avail for all of them. We did, however, find a brief Scarlet-chested Sunbird, Black Sparrowhawk, and Spotted Flycatcher. Due to an unfortunate four-hour delay we didn't have much time for birding in the afternoon after we had arrived at our lodge. But a brief walk here still produced Red-billed Spurfowl, Emerald-spotted Wood Dove, Green-winged Pytilia, and Grey Go-away-bird before rain once more stopped the birding for the day.

Day 9, 28 November 2017. Transfer to Etosha National Park

As usual we started our day with a brief walk before breakfast, which yielded Green-winged Pytilia, Common Scimitarbill, Southern Red-billed Hornbill, Grey Go-away-bird, and Common Swift. En route to Etosha we saw Booted and Tawny Eagles, White-backed Vulture, and Southern Grey-headed Sparrow. After we entered Etosha National Park, one of the best-known destinations in southern Africa, excitement was high, and soon we managed to get our optics on great species such as Red-necked Falcon, Red-capped Lark, Rattling Cisticola, Northern Black Korhaan, Kori Bustard, Grey-backed Sparrow-Lark, Common Ostrich, Burchell's Starling, Red-backed and Lesser Grey Shrike, and Cinnamon-breasted and Golden-breasted Buntings. We spent some time at the famous Halali waterhole, which is floodlit with spot lights. Great views of African Elephant, Black Rhinoceros, Black-backed Jackal, and Spotted Hyena were had, while Barn Owls and Rufous-cheeked Nightjars kept on flying by, grabbing the opportunity of feeding on the insects attracted by the lights. Other mammals for the day included Plains Zebra, Blue Wildebeest, Springbok, Black-faced Impala, Gemsbok, Steenbok, and Common Warthog.

Day 10, 29 November 2017. Etosha National Park, Halali Camp to Okaukuejo Camp

A full day's birding in the park provided us with the likes of Damara Red-billed Hornbill, Southern White-crowned Shrike, Greater Kestrel, Chestnut-backed Sparrow-Lark, Zitting and Desert Cisticolas, Kori Bustard, Red-breasted Swallow, and Cape Crow. We spent a little time at a waterhole en route to our next camp and managed to record African Jacana, Kittlitz's Plover, Red-billed Teal, Little Grebe, Red-knobbed Coot, Wood Sandpiper, Namaqua Sandgrouse, Yellow-billed Kite, Namaqua Dove, and more. As it warmed up the birding quieted down a little, but we still saw Black-chested Prinia, Blue Crane, Three-banded Plover, Western Cattle Egret, Tawny Eagle, Red-billed Quelea, Red-headed Finch, Black-throated Canary, African Cuckoo, Common Ostrich, Tawny Eagle, and Spotted Thick-knee. We ended up arriving at Okaukuejo Camp in the late afternoon. Birding after check-in until the light was too low we found Ruff, Wood Sandpiper, Namaqua Sandgrouse, European Bee-eater, African Hoopoe, Common Scimitarbill, Green Wood Hoopoe, Sabota and Red-capped Larks, African Red-eyed Bulbul, Rock Martin, Tawny-flanked Prinia, and Rattling Cisticola. Mammals included Gemsbok, Giraffe, Greater Kudu, Springbok, and Steenbok.

Springbok

Day 11, 30 November 2017. Etosha National Park, Okaukuejo Camp to Dolomite Camp

The day started out with morning birding in and around the camp. As we were looking at Gemsbok, African Elephant, Giraffe, Plains Zebra, Greater Kudu, Springbok, Spotted Hyena, and Black-backed Jackal coming to the waterhole to drink, the birds here included Sociable Weaver, Black-headed Heron, Wahlberg's Eagle, Three-banded Plover, Red-billed Quelea, African Hoopoe, African Cuckoo, and Namaqua Dove. Other highlights included White-browed Sparrow-Weaver, Acacia Pied Barbet, Brubru, Rock Martin, Southern Masked Weaver, and Green Wood Hoopoe. With a long drive ahead of us within this great park we didn't waste too much time and started our drive to Dolomite Camp, which is located in the westernmost reaches of the park. En route we enjoyed Chestnut-backed and Grey-backed Sparrow-Larks, Crowned Lapwing, Temminck's and Double-banded Coursers, Northern Black and Red-crested Korhaans, Dusky Sunbird, Stark's and Pink-billed Larks, Kori Bustard, Secretarybird, and Lanner Falcon, and we had a very unusual sighting of an Egyptian Vulture at one of the waterholes. The only new mammal for the day was a pair of Bat-eared Foxes.

Day 12, 1 December 2017. Transfer to the Kunene River region

Once again we had a bit of a drive ahead of us today, so after breakfast we hit the road and made our way out of the park to the main road to the Kunene River district on the Namibian border with Angola. Still within Etosha Greater Striped Swallow, Dusky Sunbird, Familiar Chat, Ludwig's Bustard, Capped Wheatear, Great Sparrow, Black-throated Canary, Namaqua Sandgrouse, Common Ostrich, and Monteiro's Hornbill entertained us during the drive. En route to the Kunene River district the birding was more quiet, but we still saw Common Buzzard, Pale Chanting Goshawk, Little Swift, Red-crested Korhaan, Little Bee-eater, Greater Striped Swallow, Cape Starling, Short-toed Rock Thrush, Great Sparrow, and Sociable Weaver. Once we had arrived at Kunene River Lodge we recorded Bare-cheeked Babbler, Meves's Starling, Goliath Heron, Red-billed Spurfowl, Olive Bee-eater, Yellow-bellied Greenbul, and Rufous-tailed Palm Thrush in its verdant and expansive grounds.

Sociable Weaver

Day 13, 2 December 2017. The Kunene River district

The day started with an early morning 4x4 ride to the Angolan Cave-Chat site for three members of the group, and the remainder of the group did a relaxed inflatable kayak paddle downstream on the Kunene River. We managed to connect with the Angolan Cave Chat with some pretty amazing close-up views as well as with Cinderella Waxbill, Rüppell's Parrot, White-tailed Shrike, Augur Buzzard, and Red-headed Weaver. On the kayak trip downriver we managed great views of Olive Bee-eater, Lesser Masked Weaver, Common Sandpiper, Pied Kingfisher, Cape Starling, and more. But the heat crept in and put birding on hold for the rest of the midday, and we only continued birding again later in the day. Our afternoon walk unfortunately proved fairly quiet due to the heat (the hottest day yet), but we connected with Rufous-tailed Palm Thrush, Bare-cheeked Babbler, Meves's Starling, Spectacled and Holub's Golden Weaver, Red-necked Spurfowl, Goliath Heron, Grey Go-away-bird, and White-browed Coucal.

Day 14, 3 December 2017. Transfer to the Namibia Escarpment

With a long drive ahead of us we didn't do very much birding in and around the camp before breakfast and then started on the way to our next destination. Some highlights, however, included Yellow-bellied Greenbul, Red-necked Spurfowl, Hamerkop, Olive Bee-eater, Fork-tailed Drongo, African Red-eyed Bulbul, Barn Swallow, Ashy Flycatcher, and Holub's Golden Weaver. Birding en route was slow and only included Pale Chanting Goshawk, Black-winged Kite, Helmeted Guinea fowl, European Bee-eater, Familiar Chat, and Dusky Sunbird. We arrived late in the afternoon at Erongo Wilderness Lodge and didn't manage any serious birding once we had checked in and settled down in our accommodations. Instead we had dinner and retired for what some might call an early evening (21:45) so that we could have a good early start in the morning.

Day 15, 4 December 2017. Birding the Namibia Escarpment

With a cool breeze and clear skies we started the day with little light as we made our way to the Rockrunner site. The light was a little difficult, but on the way we managed to get White-browed Sparrow-Weaver, Rosy-faced Lovebird, Southern Masked Weaver, Black-throated Canary, Kalahari Scrub Robin, and Brown-crowned Tchagra. It took us a while of waiting, listening, calling, scouring, searching, and some more waiting before we eventually found the Rockrunner perched perfectly on a boulder not too far away and singing his heart out. We had great scope views as the bird displayed for several minutes. The day warmed considerably, and the birding thinned out quite a bit as the day progressed, but we still connected with Red-billed Spurfowl, Pirit Batis, Barred Wren-Warbler, Klaas's Cuckoo, Speckled Pigeon, Pale-winged Starling, Short-toed Rock-Thrush, Rock Kestrel, Cinnamon-breasted and Cape Buntings, African Grey Hornbill, Carp's Tit, White-tailed Shrike, African Paradise Flycatcher, Mountain Wheatear, Dusky Sunbird, and more.

Rosy-faced Lovebird

Day 16, 5 December 2017. Transfer to Walvis Bay

We started the day with an early morning departure, breakfast packs in hand, because we had a bit of a drive to get to Walvis Bay but even more so because we were planning on stopping at the world-renowned Spitzkoppe for some birding madness. With little to no light we didn't record too much en route to the Spitzkoppe, but the birds seen included Rüppell's Korhaan, Laughing Dove, Swallow-tailed Bee-eater, and Dusky Sunbird. Once again the heat crept in earlier than expected and made the birding slightly challenging. But at the Spitzkoppe we did indeed find our main target, Herero Chat, in addition to other good birds like Southern Fiscal, Magpie Shrike, Ant-eating Chat, Mountain Wheatear, Rock Kestrel, Speckled Pigeon, Monteiro's Hornbill, Acacia Pied Barbet, Sabota Lark, Black-chested Prinia, and Chestnut-vented Warbler. With another two hours still to go before we would reach Walvis Bay we decided not to spend too much time at the Spitzkoppe and made our way toward the Atlantic. After lunch in Walvis Bay and checking into our guesthouse we birded the bay and recorded species such as Cape Wagtail, Kelp and Hartlaub's Gulls, Cape Teal, Greater Flamingo, Little Egret, Cape Cormorant, African Oystercatcher, Pied Avocet, Grey, Common Ringed, White-fronted, and Chestnut-banded Plovers, Whimbrel, Curlew Sandpiper, Common Greenshank, Little Stint, and Red-necked Phalarope. Terns for the day included Caspian, Greater Crested, Sandwich, Damara, and Common Terns.

Herero Chat

Day 17, 6 December 2017. Birding Walvis Bay

We started the day with a five-hour boat trip around the bay, where Great White Pelican, Kelp Gull, and even Cape Fur Seal joined us on board. The trip in and around the bay further delivered Ruddy Turnstone, Grey Plover, Common, Sandwich, and Greater Crested Terns, Cape Cormorant, African Oystercatcher, Sanderling, Whimbrel, and Brown Skua in the birding department. Mammals included Cape Fur Seal by their thousands and Black-backed Jackal. After a good lunch we took a short break during the heat of the day and then left the town of Walvis Bay and made our way about 30 minutes inland, where we eventually hit decent dunes. At this site near the dunes we spent the next couple of hours searching, calling, scouring, and eventually, after a lot of work, finding the famed Dune Lark! Other birds for the rest of the afternoon included Dusky Sunbird, Grey-headed Gull, Namaqua Dove, Little Swift, Grey Heron, Rock Kestrel, Southern Fiscal, Dusky Sunbird, an out-of-range House Crow, Barn Swallow, and Cape Sparrow.

Day 18, 7 December 2017. Departure

With flights only leaving late in the morning we had our last birding session before breakfast, where highlights included Lesser Flamingo, African Reed Warbler, Hottentot Teal, Cape Shoveler, Common Moorhen, South African Shelduck, and Glossy Ibis. Soon after breakfast we made our way to the airport for our departures.

Conclusion

In conclusion; this trip was a great, very eventful and memory-filled trip. Friendships were made, exciting birds were hunted down, good food was eaten, and amazing mammals were seen. The heat really picked up closer toward the end of the tour, which doubtlessly affected our birding and the total tally of birds we managed to find. Nevertheless, everyone was happy with the totals we managed to tally up: 336 birds (plus 2 heard only) and 32 mammals.
